

Please leave XM radio alone. They have the right to freedom of speech and I should be aloud to get information from whoever I want in the USA. The information they provide is of good variety and I choose to listen to them and pay for their good service. I should have the right as an American to get weather and trafifc information from whomever I want.